Spelling Reform.

With tragic air the lovelorn he'r
Once chased the chaste Louise,
She quickly guessed her guest
was there
To please her with his pleas.

Now at her side he kneeling sigh-ed,
High sighs of woeful size.
'Oh, hear me here, for, lo, must low
I rise before your eyes!

'This soul thine own, Louise—
'Twill never wean, I ween,
The love that I for aye shall fee',
Tho' mean may be its mien!"

'You know I cannot tell you no,"
The maid made answer true
'I love you aught as some fough't
To you 'tis due I do!"

'Since you are won, oh, fair t one,
The marriage rite is right:

The chapel aisle I'll lead you
This night," exclaimed the knight.

A WISE NEGRO.

(Macon, Ga., Telegraph)

The Chicago Tribune says the protest against Tillman has not met with unanimous approval from the colored people of Chicago. Tribune quotes W. M. Russell chairman of the committee for a Negro Y. M. C. A., as saying: "For one I desire to go on record as being against such movement. The best way to prove to the world that Senator Tillman's statements about the race are false is by living them down by good deportment, honesty, truthfulness and high aspirations. All the Tillman's and Vardamans in the world cannot stop the progress of the Negro so long as he lives right and does right."

This negro has the right view of it. Chicago negroes who are threatening to debar a white man from exercising the right of free speech, are simply playing into the hands of those who are intolerant of the race. They not only invite retaliation on their own race in sections where race antagonisms are pronounced, but such a course they will unite men in the ties of sympathy and blood everywhere and make it only the harder for themselves in the end. If they have a Booker Washington among them he will surely advise them to go along about their business and let Senator Tillman and his views of the race question severely alone. It only requires a few such instances of wrong headed excess to show the country as a whole the race's inherent lack of capacity for self government.

NOT IN SCHOOL

I desire to address my remarks to the young Negro boys and Negro girls of the state that is grand its fertility of soil, noble in its generous spirit of education above a number of states in wealth and population. Young men I notice that you are not in school a very more. What is the matter? Think you have received enough education to tide you thru the world or do you stay out just because you don't like to go? Young men you are standing in your own light. That other places may present a more pleasing aspect to your dim vision there can be no doubt; but listen to the voice of reason. "Youth is the seed time." Do you not know that the pathway of life is strewn with the bones of bigoted manhood because of the preconceived idea that the educational scheme is fought with difficulty. There is no royal road to learning. So you say the door of hope is closed against the colored youth and why strive to become a useful factor under the existing circumstances, your logic is faulty. The great army of successful Negroes who are marching a steady tramp, tramp, should be a source of inspiration to you.

Don't like the teacher? Young men, do you not know that the school teachers are the guardians of our democracy. By them our bulwark of intelligence is made strong or weak. When this country realizes its obligation to teachers of the commonwealth, the least appreciated of all who serve society and the state then will be brought in the Golden Age. Young man your teacher is your best friend. So young man you will find the meanest teacher on earth—if there be any—a dream of love beside some of the bosses you will work under when it becomes necessary for you to hustle for yourself.

Young man, education is the most valuable thing in the world to a man, but to a youth it comes the cheapest. It costs you nothing now to get what many a man would give all to possess. You say that this ambition is too broad. Well ask some one who threw away the precious moments as you are now doing. Listen to the answer if 20 or 30 yrs. of my life could be recalled things would be different.

You had the shining number in the lottery of education if you only had taken the time to study.

ed out as sheep for slaughter in busy affairs of life. Way bridle the macho that desires to assert itself. Why grieve a thoughtful father and loving mother who stand ready to give you needed assistance? So you can make a living without an education, that is true—yet, did you ever think how much easier that same kind of work could be done with brain application.

The age of muscle has been relegated to the distant past, to a degree and the age of brain activity is upon you—what will you do?

At the present stage of the game the choice positions are not held by physical strength.

Young man do not look for the working of a miracle to be your inheritance, arise some morning to find that you have come into possession of great learning. The thing for you to do is to hike off to school in the morning and stay there until the thirst which will develop for knowledge has been satisfied. The race has need of you. The battles of today will be your tomorrow. Your holidays will come later when you need them.

Had I a number of tongues and each tongue a number of voices I would gladly thunder into the ears of young men and young women the necessity of making the best of life. So young man stay in school that you may be useful members of society, that you may lift others up as you climb, that the criminal records may show a decrease in crime of the race, that jimmicromism may be the last straw in the minds of men that you may be a benefactor to your race. Young man stay in school.

Yours for the race,
Wm. Jacobs.
